

TITLE: Celebrations that matter: welcoming a baby YEAR GROUP 1

ABOUT THIS UNIT:

This unit fits into a focus on belonging and celebrating. This unit addresses welcoming of a new baby in both Christianity and Islam. It addresses the key stage 1 theme of celebrations. It uses questions like these: how and why are celebrations important in religion? Symbols: how and why do symbols express religious meaning? Belonging: where and how do people belong and why is belonging so important? It offers opportunities for pupils: to share their own beliefs and ideas and talk about their feelings and experiences; and to use ICT to explore religions and beliefs as practised in the local and wider community.

Estimated time for this unit (in hours) 6 - 8 hours

Where this unit fits in:

This unit introduces the study of celebrations and festivals, an important starting point for pupils to develop a positive understanding of religion. The theme will be carried forward later in the course. It also emphasises the religious aspects of celebrating: where the unit is well taught, it will include conversation and discussion about God and spiritual questions.

KEY STRANDS ADDRESSED BY THIS UNIT

Religious practices and lifestyles
 Questions of identity and experience

ATTITUDES FOCUS

- feeling confident about their own beliefs and identity: sharing them without fear or embarrassment
- developing a realistic and positive sense of their own religious, moral and spiritual ideas
- recognising their own uniqueness as human beings and affirming their self-worth
- being ready to value difference and diversity for the common good

Prior learning	Vocabulary	Resources
It is helpful if pupils have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • explored simply some aspects of both Christianity and Islam and understood that these are different religions. • some knowledge of Jesus Christ being a special baby 	In this unit, pupils will have an opportunity to use words and phrases related to: Belonging Christianity: Christening Baptism Islam: Adhan Allah God	Baptismal cards and candles Photographs/posters of the inside of a church showing the font, RE Today Services (www.retoday.org.uk) publish relevant items: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Islam: A Pictorial Guide ➤ Say Hello to... (Interactive Cd and book) ➤ Developing Primary RE: Special Times, Faith Stories ➤ Festivals 1 DVD ➤ Developing Primary RE: Home and Family Looking at Religion: My Muslim life by Riadh Al Droubie (Wayland) The Christening by Jacqueline Hardy Muslim Beliefs and Cultures Pub: Franklin Watts Religious Education KS1, by Christine Moorcroft, Badger Bowl water; razor without blade; doll; scales; charity box Photographs/posters of the inside church of a showing the font, which has video clip of baptismal promises Video – Dottie and Buzz Websites - www.dottieandbuzz.co.uk for activities www.educhurch.org.uk/pupils/combs/font.html for infant baptism www.islam4schools.com/Children.htm for the call to prayer (Adhan) www.cleo.net.uk/subjects.php for adult baptism

Contributions to spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils

The unit enables pupils to develop:

- Spiritually by learning about and reflecting on important experiences and beliefs at the heart of Christianity and Islam;
- Morally by valuing diversity and considering what is of value to Christians, Muslims and themselves, especially when a baby is born.
- Socially by considering how religious and other beliefs lead to particular actions when a new baby joins the family;
- Culturally by considering how religions vary, and how they matter to some people.

EXPECTATIONS

At the end of this unit:

Nearly all pupils will be able to work towards level 1:

- Talk about how babies are welcomed into the Christian family and a Muslim family.
- Talk about belonging in their own lives: who do they belong to?

Most pupils will be able to work at level 1:

- Talk about groups they belong to;
- Recognise and name the Christian practice of baptism.
- Recall some features of welcoming a baby in Islam.
- Speak about some of the symbols associated with baptism.
- Reflect on their understanding of belonging and talk about what belonging means to Christians and Muslims.

Some pupils might be able to work at level 2:

- Recall and suggest meanings of some of the special words used by Christians at a baptism and by Muslims when a baby is born

ASSESSMENT SUGGESTIONS

Pupils might engage with the Dottie and Buzz drag and drop activity (www.dottieandbuzz.co.uk)

Pupils design a 'welcome' card for a new baby for either a Christian or a Muslim family, decorating it appropriately with symbols or patterns. Words should be appropriate for the religion chosen.

Pupils think about the use of the Adhan in welcoming a baby, and consider: what precious words would it be good to whisper in a child's ear when they are 1, 3 or 5? Why? Give children a template of an ear to record their ideas simply.

Key questions	LEARNING OBJECTIVES Pupils should learn:	TEACHING AND LEARNING	LEARNING OUTCOMES Pupils will be able to	WIDER LEARNING
What does it mean to belong?	about ways in which they belong how their 'belonging' is expressed in their identity how they became members of the various groups to which they	Belonging for me: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • through words such as family, club, group, class and school talk about belonging and identity • discuss how they show that they belong to these different groups (e.g. names, clothes, badges, songs, spending time) • pupils use simple writing frames and a word bank to identify the groups they belong to. • discuss what is special or good about belonging to particular groups and record pupil comments. • create wall display of pupils' artwork 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the groups they belong to • describe briefly how their identity as a member of a group is expressed • say why belonging to a particular group is special to 	This work has close connections with foundation stage ELGs for personal development and communication and with PSHE.

	belong to talk about their own sense of belonging with confidence	showing the groups they belong to and annotated with their comments from the discussion. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talk about the idea that ‘we belong together’ as a class, a school or even a whole human race. 	them
How do you ‘belong’? How do others in the class belong?	to think about belonging for others as well as for themselves.	How do we belong to different groups? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • discuss how they became members of the groups they belong to, identifying any special celebrations (this will include being welcomed after they were born, into their family) • Draw out the idea that ‘belonging’ means different things to different people. We belong to different families, and to different faiths. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • talk about how they became members of the groups to which they belong, describing briefly any special celebrations at this time
How and why do some Christians baptise their babies?	about some of the symbols associated with baptism about how babies are welcomed into a particular faith group family - Christianity	How Christians welcome a new baby <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • explain there are other ways of welcoming a new baby and show video of a baptism (home video or ‘Dottie and Buzz’ to show how babies are welcomed into the Christian family • or take pupils to the local church for a ‘mock’ baptism • or show photographs and posters of a baptism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • talk about the symbolism of the cross on the baby’s head (welcoming the baby into the Christian family), the water (cleansing – beginning a new life) and the candle (letting their light shine in the world) • explore the term ‘Christian’ name • listen to pupils’ own experiences of baptisms and create a display out of their baptismal memorabilia • visit www.dottieandbuzz.co.uk and use the interactive whiteboard to look at Dottie’s photographs. There is a drag and drop activity for pupils to show their learning simply. • or use the above as an individual assessment activity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • talk about how babies are welcomed into their families • describe two things that happen at a baptism • talk about the importance of baptizing a baby for Christians • identify three symbols connected with baptism and suggest what they mean. 	The story of Jesus’ baptism could be told. Links could be made with some Christians who wait until their children are older, or they are adults to be baptized. See: www.cleo.net.uk/subjects.php for an example of adult baptism.

How do Muslims welcome new babies into the family?	To talk about how a baby is welcomed into the family of Islam	Welcoming a baby in a Muslim family <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • talk to the pupils about differences in practices of welcoming a new baby • explain that in Islam, the first words a baby hears are the Adhan, whispered into his ears and they are about God: discuss why this might be important to Muslims. • use a doll to exemplify the practice of shaving a baby's head, and weighing the hair in order to give an equivalent amount to charity in silver. Discuss why Muslims might do this. • Talk about thankfulness and generosity: when do we say thanks you? Why is it important to be generous? • Talk about how a Muslim baby is often named after someone famous in the history of Islam. Why might a parent do this? • Pupils' talk with parents about why they were given their names and report back. Discuss the significance of their names. • Role play welcoming a baby into a Muslim family and digitally photograph it. Create a power point presentation and annotate this with words pupils used and their comments. Replay this for pupils, to identify further questions. NB the PowerPoint presentation can be used as a resource for other classes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • talk about 2 things that happen when a baby is born into a Muslim family • suggest a reason why Muslims might give to charity following the birth of a baby • talk about the significance of their own names 	The full Adhan (call to prayer) can be found at www.islam4schools.com A classroom friendly site. As this is played, the words in English are displayed over the top of images of what takes place in the mosque.
What have we learned about belonging?	To speak thoughtfully about questions of belonging for themselves	Belonging for Christians and Muslims <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils might engage with the Dottie and Buzz drag and drop activity (www.dottieandbuzz.co.uk) • Pupils design a 'welcome' card for a new baby for either a Christian or a Muslim family, decorating it appropriately with symbols or patterns. Words should be appropriate for the religion chosen. • Pupils think about the use of the Adhan in welcoming a baby, and consider: what precious words would it be good to whisper in a child's ear when they are 1, 3 or 5? Why? Give children a template of an ear to record their ideas simply. Belonging for myself: what did we learn? Ask pupils to take turns, in small or larger groups, at these prompts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I belong to... • I like to be in... • I belong with... • I am welcome in... • I feel welcome when... • I like to be with... 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use a simple word bank to complete sentences about their personal experiences, linking them simply to religious ideas 	This activity is good for circle time. It connects to the speaking and listening objectives of Year 1 literacy.

Tower Hamlets Scheme of Work 2: Celebrations that matter

		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• What I like about welcoming new babies is...
--	--	--	--	--